FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Non-profits Invited to Recruit at Volunteer Fair

Fort Pierce, FL, September 29, 2011 – Nonprofit organizations are invited to participate in a Volunteer Fair to take place on Friday, October 28th, 2011, from 10am-2pm at the Treasure Coast Hospice Center in Fort Pierce. The event, hosted by Volunteer St. Lucie, will provide an opportunity for agencies that count on volunteer help to showcase their organizations.

This is the first fair sponsored by Volunteer St. Lucie to be held in Fort Pierce. Volunteer St. Lucie is a program of United Way of St. Lucie County that focuses on promoting volunteerism and matching volunteers in the community with the right volunteer opportunity at local non-profits. Organizers hope the fair will help people with passion and time to devote to a cause connect with a local organization that fits their interests and abilities. This event is free to all residents who are interested in learning more about volunteer opportunities throughout St. Lucie County.

Organizations will have an opportunity to advertise in the Information Booklet and are encouraged to hold a raffle drawing. Registration with advertising is $25.00, without advertising $10.00. Learn more or register for “Fall In and Volunteer” by contacting Rose at 772-464-5300 ext. 103 or rosep@volunteerstlucie.org.

Volunteer St. Lucie’s goal is to engage individuals in building a better community. To register to become a volunteer in the community go to www.volunteerstlucie.org or call (772) 464-5300 for more information. Local agencies and organizations seeking volunteers are encouraged to register with Volunteer St. Lucie to increase awareness of their needs, to add to their volunteer base, and to create a community wide partnership between organizations and volunteers.
