Volunteer St. Lucie Partners with Local Volunteer Coordinators

FORT PIERCE, FL – Volunteer St. Lucie, a volunteer center and program of United Way of St. Lucie County, held their Quarterly Volunteer Coordinators Meeting on January 26th at the United Way Board Room. The meeting was attended by volunteer coordinators from local organizations seeking to expand their volunteer base by partnering with the program. Volunteer St. Lucie matches volunteers with local non-profit agencies to meet the needs of the community.

Lana McClain, Volunteer Coordinator for Volunteer St. Lucie, spoke with local volunteer coordinators about how to determine which tasks to delegate to their volunteers in order to maximize volunteer enjoyment, volunteer retention, and to make the most of the good work volunteers can contribute to an organization. The group also discussed ways in which each agency can recognize volunteers for their efforts, and show appreciation for their help.

Volunteer St. Lucie is encouraging community members to register to volunteer, and donate their time and skills in an effort to better the community. To register to become a volunteer in the community go to www.volunteerstlucie.org or call (772)464-5300 for more information. Local agencies and organizations seeking volunteers are encouraged to register with Volunteer St. Lucie to increase awareness of their needs, to add to their volunteer base, and to create a community wide partnership between organizations and volunteers. For more information about Volunteer St. Lucie, contact Lana McClain at (772)464-5300 or lanam@volunteerstlucie.org.
